Old Testament

Proverbs 25:2-10

It is the glory of God to conceal things, but the glory of kings is to search things out. (3) As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the heart of kings is unsearchable. (4) Take away the dross from the silver, and the smith has material for a vessel; (5) take away the wicked from the presence of the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness. (6) Do not put yourself forward in the king's presence or stand in the place of the great, (7) for it is better to be told, "Come up here," than to be put lower in the presence of a noble. What your eyes have seen (8) do not hastily bring into court, for what will you do in the end, when your neighbor puts you to shame? (9) Argue your case with your neighbor himself, and do not reveal another's secret, (10) lest he who hears you bring shame upon you, and your ill repute have no end.

Epistle

Hebrews 13:1-17

Let brotherly love continue. (2) Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. (3) Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body. (4) Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. (5) Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." (6) So we can confidently say, "The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?" (7) Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. (8) Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. (9) Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those devoted to them. (10) We have an altar from which those who serve the tent have no right to eat. (11) For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy places by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp. (12) So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through his own blood. (13) Therefore let us go to him outside the camp and bear the reproach he endured. (14) For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come. (15) Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. (16) Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. (17) Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they are keeping watch over your souls, as those who will have to give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with groaning, for that would be of no advantage to you.

Gospel

Luke 14:1-14

One Sabbath, when he went to dine at the house of a ruler of the Pharisees, they were watching him carefully. (2) And behold, there was a man before him who had dropsy. (3) And Jesus responded to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?" (4) But they remained silent. Then he took him and healed him and sent him away. (5) And he said to them, "Which of you, having a son or an ox that has fallen into a well on a Sabbath day, will not immediately pull him out?" (6) And they could not reply to these things. (7) Now he told a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the places of honor, saying to them, (8) "When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in a place of honor, lest someone more distinguished than you be invited by him, (9) and he who invited you both will come and say to you, 'Give your place to this person,' and then you will begin with shame to take the lowest place. (10) But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when your host comes he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at table with you. (11) For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted." (12) He said also to the man who had invited him, "When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and you be repaid. (13) But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, (14) and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

JESUS OFFERS A gracious buyout, even as He speaks of counting the cost of following Him. Next week listen to Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler's message: on the Lutheran Hour "Count the Cost" (Luke 14:25-35) on WCCO (830): 6.05 AM, KSUM (1370): 11:00 AM. Today's message: "The Vision We Need" (Romans 8:18-23).

Introit Ps. 75:1-2, 6, 9; antiphon: Ps. 75:7

It is God who executes | judgment,*

putting down one and lifting up an- | other.

We give thanks to you, O God; we give thanks, for your | name is near.*

We recount your | wondrous deeds.

At the set time that | I appoint*

I will judge with | equity.

For not from the east or | from the west*

and not from the wilderness comes | lifting up,

But I will declare it for- | ever;*

I will sing praises to the God of | Jacob.

It is God who executes | judgment,*

putting down one and lifting up an- | other.

Our Visitors

We welcome you to the Divine Service. May the Lord Jesus bless you through His Word preached, spoken, sung and given in the Sacraments. We believe that the Bible is the Word of God and therefore it is without error. We believe that Jesus Christ is true God, together with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Further, we believe that Jesus Christ atoned for all the world's sins and that we are saved alone by God's undeserved love. Scripture teaches that God declared the whole world to be righteous in Christ's crucifixion and resurrection. For Christ's sake He justifies those who believe in Jesus and trust in God's forgiveness in the blood of The Crucified One.

Holy Communion

LORD'S S  Scripture declares that in the Sacrament of the Altar each communicant receives the body and blood of Christ to eat and to drink with the mouth of their bodies. Communicants who believe this receive forgiveness of sins, those who don't eat and drink judgement unto themselves.

SUPPER R Communion also is a confession of oneness of the Faith we are baptized into, is preached in our pulpit, and summarized in the Small Catechism. Sadly, since these clear doctrines of The Holy Bible are not accepted by all Christian denominations, we continue the historic Christian practice of Closed Communion. We request that anyone who is not a communicant member of the LC-MS please speak with our Pastor or an elder before the service and join our congregation in singing hymns during the distribution. Membership classes are offered.
