There is a Prayer Request in that.

Romans 12:12 states that we should have a lifestyle of “continuing steadfastly in prayer.” i like to say, “Pray like crazy.”

Have you ever found yourself saying, “i am not sure what else to pray about.....”? Well, i would like to suggest that there is a prayer request in just about every social interaction (or even in the lack of those interactions).

- ◆ She sits in the front row, left side of my classroom second period of the day.
- ◆ He sits as far away from me in every class he has with me.
- ◆ They sit as a group of “bozos,” as a posse of non-sense.
- ◆ She comes out of her bedroom every morning (sometimes i carry her because i still can).
- ◆ They sit on the left side of the church, five pews from the back.
- ◆ She now sits by herself.
- ◆ His pew now sits empty on most Sundays.
- ◆ i got behind a “Buick,” so now i have more time than i thought on my drive to school.
- ◆ That person is really mad/sad and it “might” be my fault.
- ◆ Your boss, your best friend, your enemy, your cousin, your pastor, your mom/dad/grandparent, your sister, your long lost high school friend...
- ◆ Reunions, holidays, birthdays, anniversaries, social media posts, (the list is endless)
- ◆ The faces of your family and friends on your fridge

If we have our eyes open to the needs of our neighbor, whether they ask or not, we may find that there are not enough minutes in the day to pray for all the circumstances we encounter. Jesus has determined our pre-appointed times and the boundaries of our dwellings – Acts 17:26. If this is true, the people we meet at any given time would suggest that “there may be a prayer request in that.” Sometimes people we have not seen in a long time randomly pop up in our head: There may be a prayer request in that.

Join our focus on prayer in your daily walk, and you can pray for our schools along the way.

Come Lord Jesus, Amen!
