INTROIT PSALM 104:24,27-28,30,33; 118:1

P Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
C For His mercy endures forever.
P I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
C I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
P O LORD, how manifold are Your works! In wisdom You have made them all.
C The earth is full of Your creatures.
P These all wait for You,
C That You may give them their food in due season.
P What You give them they gather in;
C You open Your hand, they are filled with good.
P You send forth Your Spirit, they are created;
C And You renew the face of the earth.
P Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
C For His mercy endures forever.

OLD TESTAMENT READING – ISAIAH 61:10-11

10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for He has clothed me with the garments of salvation, He has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. 11 For as the earth brings forth its bud, as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

EPISTLE READING – PHILIPPIANS 4:6-20

6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; 7 and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. 8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things. 9 The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you. 10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last your care for me has flourished again; though you surely did care, but you lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content: [12]I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. [13]I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. [14]Nevertheless you have done well that you shared in my distress. [15]Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me concerning giving and receiving but you only. [16]For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities. [17]Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that abounds to your account. [18]Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things sent from you, a sweet-smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God. [19]And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. [20]Now to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL READING – LUKE 17:11-19

[11]Now it happened as He went to Jerusalem that He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. [12]Then as He entered a certain village, there met Him ten men who were lepers, who stood afar off. [13]And they lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" [14]So when He saw them, He said to them, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And so it was that as they went, they were cleansed. [15]And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned, and with a loud voice glorified God, [16]and fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him thanks. And he was a Samaritan. [17]So Jesus answered and said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine? [18]Were there not any found who returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?" [19]And He said to him, "Arise, go your way. Your faith has made you well."

A Happy and Blessed Thanksgiving to our St. Paul's Family Thank you for entrusting your children to us.
